

Monopoly in any area leads to corruption. Monopoly in the media is unthinkable, since we are guaranteed freedom of the press. Only by allowing opposing opinions to be published can we hope to maintain a balance.